WELCOME

For specifiers and suppliers of international lighting projects; [d]arc sessions is an intimate, relaxed space to share ideas, specify projects and network.

Curated by [d]arc media, the market-leading publisher and events organiser for the international lighting design industry, the two-day programme comprises a series of meetings and seminars interspersed with ample networking opportunities within beautiful surroundings.

[d]arc sessions is a series of events connecting the very best people creating exceptional lighting projects around the world.

It comprises four key elements: Speed+Sync meetings; Symposia speaker sessions; Sustenance breakouts; and Social celebrations.

Guests attend [d]arc sessions to specify and source projects; to escape, regenerate and rebuild, in beautiful, spacious surroundings.

The next instalment of [d]arc sessions will take place at the Art Hotel & Resort in Bahrain, from 10 - 12 October 2023.

SPEED+SYNC

In an era when every business trip must be accounted for, the [d]arc sessions pledge is simple: Suppliers will only meet specifiers actively working on international lighting projects.

[d]arc sessions is a new way to specify products, source projects and share ideas and it aims to transform your chances of being specified for lighting projects all over the world.

* suppliers with one delegate will have a minimum of 10 x 20 minute meetings.

TESTIMONIALS

"For me, [d]arc sessions is the perfect environment to really engage with manufacturers, contemporaries and potential collaborators, as the format slows your usual pace and directs you to your likely positive connections, while leaving plenty of time to informally meet and network away from the pressure of the office or the hustle and bustle of a usual trade show."

Graham Rollins, Creative Director at Lighting Design International

"Having had the pleasure of taking part in the inaugural [d]arc sessions, as well as a recent Middle East event; I must commend the [d]arc media team on curating such a fantastic, pleasurable and mutually beneficial event. We wholeheartedly look forward to meeting more of the industry's leading creative minds at the next event!"

Ryan Rolph, Technical Sales Director at Tryka
